EWGA DC METRO

May 7, 2007

Dear Vicki,

Events and Leagues have begun ! Is there a better time of year ? This eblast is full of information about what has been and what is yet to be ! As we each find our own pleasure in golf and are grateful to those who help it evolve - remember to introduce a friend to this great game. What if no one had ever encouraged you ? Get out, play, engage and ENJOY.

Women's Golf Week, June 2-9, 2007

Volunteers Needed/SAVE THE DATES

Your Chapter collaborates with our Sponsors and Education Partners in support of Women's Golf Week, a nationwide, golf industry initiative to introduce women to the game as well as retain current players.

This year, Capital City Golf School at East Potomac Park and Dulles Golf Center, Dulles, VA, are committed to offering special programs and support new member recruitment. For example, Capital City Golf School at East Potomac Park is hosting a networking event on Tuesday, June 5, and offering free lessons and a demo day on Saturday, June 9. Other locations with Partner facilities in Virginia and Maryland are still to be confirmed and events scheduled. Watch future E-Blasts for more information.

We put the Web to Work!

This is a great way to introduce a friend or family member to golf; or, to sample the resources of our many Sponsors and Education Partners! And, we need volunteers ---this is a great way to meet new friends. Questions or Volunteer sign-up? Contact Chapter Vice-President, Connie Eisaman.

Opening Day Scramble at Virginia Oaks

In a shotgun start, 63 eager members and guests got the 2007 golf season off to a resounding bang at the Virginia Oaks Golf Course on April 28. The format was a four (wo)man scramble, and throughout 18 holes on the lovely Virginia Oaks course under mostly sunny skies, cheers of holed shots mingled with groans of near misses. In the end, the team of Syler, Marcotte, Flather, and Maslow bagged the most birdies and captured first place with a team score of 66--6 strokes under par.

The post golf festivities continued in the clubhouse during lunch when many other participants walked away winners with wonderful prizes donated by Golfdom and Arbonne International, our chapter sponsors, and by Virginia Oaks. Many more fun golf events are planned for future dates so log onto the EWGADC website and sign up now.

Broad Run Clinic and Golf

An overcast sky and a spit of rain did not dampen the spirits of the EWGADC student golfers at Broad Run Golf Academy on Saturday May 5. The day began with a short game clinic by Broad Run's resident professional, and the clinic activities were highlighted by instructor-requested skills demonstrations by member Paula Renfro on pitching and by member Deb Smith on putting. The golfers then put their instruction to test on the very challenging 9 holes of the Broad Run course. As usual, everyone had a great time on the course and off the course during the luncheon mingle, and we want to thank Golf Events Chair, Jan Hardiman, for her hard work and unflagging good humor in hosting this event and our season initiation event last week at Virginia Oaks. The next event is scheduled for May 19 at Hampshire Greens in Silver Spring, Maryland.

Remember Your First Time on the Golf Course?

Be a Mentor

If you'd like to help a brand new golfer feel "at ease on the tees" for her very FIRST round of golf, please join us as a GOLF MENTOR for a 3-hole scramble golf event with the Women in Government Relations (WGR), supported by the PGA. This event -- on the Par 3 Red Course at East Potomac Golf Course in Washington, DC -- will be a great chance for our chapter to network with WGR and to show our support of helping women get into game.

One "experienced" EWGA DC member will be grouped with three (3) "new" WGR golfers. To be experienced means you've ALREADY played your first round and that you're ready to show a new golfer how to have a relaxing and FUN time on the course. There will be lots of on-course contests and prizes and casual networking reception after the 3- holes.

For EWGA DC mentors, your greens fees will be underwritten by Golf Course Specialists, operator of East Potomac Golf Course. If you're interested in mentoring, please email kthomas@golfdc.com by Sunday, May 13.

2007 Events Schedule: Credit Cards & Calendars

"Have you Registered Yet?"

Online Registration links have been added to the EWGA DC Metro Events Page for all Tour and Group play outings, all Clinic and 9-Hole Outings and the coveted Battle of the Beltways, which is limited to the first 16 ladies to sign up from our Chapter. (The Chapter Championship and 2-day Tour Finale will be added as soon as the registration forms and links are ready.)

We really owe a huge thank you to Cathy Johnson for all of the grueling detailed work she has done in this project to create the online registration pages. Ladies - it's Credit Card & Calendar Commitment Time !

Mother's Day Specials

Capital City Golf School is offering special gift certificates for rounds of golf, instruction, and equipment. See www.capitalcitygolfschool.com for more details and drop the shopping hint to family members or just treat yourself!

What is Pilates and Why It Will Help Your Game

Pilates for Golf/Hole in One Pilates, is offering a clinic at Patuxent Greens Golf Course, 11:30 to 1:30pm, May 20. This 2 hour clinic is a great introduction to the power of Pilates and improvement in your game and overall fitness. Check out www.pilatesforgolf.com for more information or call Sarah Christensen, 410.320.1754, for information about group and individual training and workouts at convenient locations in Maryland and Virginia.

New Golfer or Seasoned Golfer in Need of a Tune-up?

Liza Abood, PGA/LPGA teaching professional at Olney Golf Park, Olney, Maryland, begins another four week session for beginners, "Introduction to Golf", on Thursday evening, May 10. If you are a seasoned player in need of a club fitting or pointers on your short-game or wish to arrange a playing lesson, contact Liza Abood, email: lbood@olneygolfpark.com or call 301.570.6600.

Volunteers Needed for Membership Committee

We're looking for people who want to meet new friends, develop some personal or professional skills or give back to make a difference in the chapter. You can have an impact in as little as 30 minutes a month.

The Membership Committee is developing several initiatives to make it easier for the new member to find her way and make the most of her EWGA membership. We want this chapter to be known for its friendliness and inclusion of all members in our activities. To meet the needs of new and returning members we need your help. Contact Nicole Hardin at membership@ewgadc.org

Membership Renewal

Did your EWGA membership expire at the end of March? You have a 3 month grace period before you would have to rejoin as a new member, but you can't participate in any of the chapter events until you renew. We don't want you to miss out on all the great things we have planned.

It's easy to renew online.

- Sign into the Members Only area on the EWGA web

- site using your login (member ID) and password
- Send an email to member@ewga.com if you have forgotten your password
  - Click on the "Renewal Reminder" tab in the upper right corner of the screen
  - Confirm your Chapter and membership level (classic, premier or executive)
  - Enter your credit card payment information and hit submit Renew your membership and we'll see you on the course

EWGA Leadership Links

Become More Knowledgeable about EWGA

Did you know that all members have access to Leadership Links on the EWGA web site? Have you wondered what's involved in making the chapter work? You can become more knowledgeable about EWGA by subscribing to Leadership Links. If you're curious, sign in to "Members Only," click on Leadership Links and set your "Global Preferences" in the box on the left. There are step-by-step instructions at "Using E-Communities." Once you're in you can take part in forums and search the document archives.

Find out what's involved in running the chapter championship, look at job descriptions and listen to the training webinars that help your chapter leaders learn to provide you their best efforts. These are just a few of the things that you'll find. If you've been wondering how things are done, looking through Leadership Links will dispel the mystery.
